

Friends

Why not write a letter to your friend that you are missing?

You could bring your letter into school in September and give it to your friend.

You could write more than one letter to more than one friend!

Who are you missing?

Why are you missing them?

What makes them a good friend?

What have you been doing that you could tell them about?

What do you wish you could do with them if you were together?

Friends