Marking and feedback - The Woodnewton Way

- ✓ Teachers on-going assessment happens throughout the lessons to identify all children needing support and / or challenge opportunities.
- \checkmark Live feedback and marking is a key part of our approach to our feedback policy.
- \checkmark Children will know their targets and work towards these throughout their lessons.

Cilidien will know the	en targets and work towards these throughout their lessons.
	Teachers write in pink. This includes for modelling and
CONTRACT OF STREET	questioning.
	Children with in blue year or would
The state of the s	Children write in blue pen or pencil.
	Children respond to marking in purple pen.
"I know"	The L.O. is shared with children.
"I know"	The L.O. is underlined using a ruler.
	A highlighter dash is used against the L.O.
A	Exceeded expectations.
	Executed expectations.
	Achieved expectations.
	Achieved expectations.
-	Partially achieved expectations.
1
	Pink for think.
	Child has worked independently.
	Child needs to correct / add specific punctuation.
(P)
	Child needs to correct a spelling (no more than 3).
S	child ficeus to correct a spelling (no more than 3).
	Additional support given
(AS)
A 06/09/22	A and date written if a child is absent.

Commented [KH1]: